

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 1, 1994

CONTACT: Shawn Tate
(202) 994-6467

GW SPOTLIGHT SALUTES BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Martin Luther King Awards, Theatre of David Rousseve, Music of Ysaye Barnwell and Gospel Choir Directed by Rev. Donald Vails
Showcased In GW's February 19 and 20 TV Show

EVENT: The George Washington University in association with NewsChannel 8 presents a monthly, half-hour magazine program, GW SPOTLIGHT. This month's focus will be "GW's Tribute to Black History Month."

The first segment will include this year's Martin Luther King, Jr. Medalists for Outstanding Professional Service in Civil/Human Rights: dancer/teacher-choreographer Doris Jones; lecturer/actress/producer-director Yolanda King; Georgia Congressman John Lewis; founder/director of the Harlem Boys Choir Dr. Walter J. Turnbull; and co-founder and current director of the GW Neighbors Project, senior Jeff Rickert.

The second segment includes internationally acclaimed choreographer/writer/dancer/actor/teacher David Rousseve; composer and member of Sweet Honey In The Rock, Ysaye Barnwell; and a gospel choir assembled from D.C. talent, under the direction of Rev. Donald Vails.

WHEN: Saturday, February 19 at 11:00 a.m.
Sunday, February 20 at 11:30 a.m. and 8:00 p.m.

WHERE: NewsChannel 8

* * * * *

For additional information or interviews with program participants, please call Shawn Tate (202) 994-6467 or Nora Kelley (202) 994-3087 in the Office of University Relations.

ROOM 207
Office of Special Collections
Gelman Library, 00000

Dave Anderson
CAMPUS MAIL
Room 207

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 1, 1994

MEDIA CONTACT: Shawn Tate
(202) 994-6467

NOVELIST KIANA DAVENPORT TO READ AT GW APRIL 21

Third in Series of Spring 1994 Readings Sponsored by Jenny McKean Moore Fund for Writers

EVENT: The Department of English at The George Washington University presents a reading by novelist KIANA DAVENPORT as part of the Jenny McKean Moore Fund for Writers spring 1994 series.

KIANA DAVENPORT is author of four novels: "A Desperate Season" (Fawcett: 1979); "The Power Eaters" (William Morrow: 1980); "Wild Spenders" (Macmillan: 1984); and "Shark Dialogues" (Atheneum: 1984). Her many honors include an N.E.A. grant for fiction in 1992 and The Bunting Fellowship for Fiction, 1992-1993.

WHEN: Thursday, April 21, 1994
8 p.m.

WHERE: The George Washington University
Marvin Center, Room 403
800 21st Street, NW
Washington, D.C. 20052
(Two blocks from Foggy Bottom/GW Metro, blue and orange lines)

COST: Admission is free and open to the public.

NOV
Office of Special Collections
Gelman Library, 00000

Dave Anderson
CAMPUS MAIL
Room 207

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 2, 1994

MEDIA CONTACT: Karen Sibert
202/994-6460
PUBLIC CONTACT: John Waldron
202/994-0562

GW EUROPEAN STUDIES FORUM FEATURES STATE DEPARTMENT
SPEAKER ON NATO EXPANSION FEB. 9

EVENT: The Jean Monnet Council - George Washington University Forum in European Studies, in association with The GW Elliott School of International Affairs, presents Ambassador James Goodby, chief negotiator, Safe and Secure Dismantlement of Nuclear Weapons, Department of State. Ambassador Goodby will speak on "NATO Expansion: Solution or Provocation?"

WHEN: Wednesday, February 9, 1994
12:00 to 2:00 p.m.

WHERE: The George Washington University
Strong Hall Lounge
620 21st Street, NW
Washington, D.C.
(Foggy Bottom/GW Metro Orange & Blue Lines)

COST: Free and open to the public. Reservations accepted at 202/994-0562.

Background:

Ambassador James E. Goodby has held the position of chief United States negotiator for the Safe and Secure Dismantlement of Nuclear Weapons since March 1993. He is responsible for negotiating agreements with Belarus, Kazakhstan, Russia and Ukraine, under which the United States provides equipment and technical service to these countries to assist them in dismantling weapons of mass destruction and converting military facilities to civilian enterprises.

As a foreign service officer from 1952 until 1989, he served in a variety of positions in Europe and in Washington, most of them concerning international security affairs. He has been principal deputy assistant of the Bureau of Politico-Military Affairs; deputy assistant secretary of state for European Affairs; American ambassador to Finland; and vice chairman of the U.S. delegation to the Conference of Disarmament in Europe (Stockholm).

- more -

Ambassador Goodby is the recipient of the Presidential Distinguished Service Award, the Department of State's Superior Honor Award and Distinguished Honor Award, and the Commander's Cross of the Order of Merit (FRG). He was named a distinguished Fellow of the U.S. Institute of Peace in 1992.

MEDIA WISHING TO ATTEND THE EVENT MAY CONTACT KAREN SIBERT, GW OFFICE OF UNIVERSITY RELATIONS AT 202/994-6460.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 2, 1994

MEDIA CONTACT: Shawn Tate
(202) 994-6467
PUBLIC CONTACT: Department of Music
(202) 994-6245

GW'S DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC PRESENTS NEIL GLADD, CLASSICAL MANDOLIN PERFORMANCE ON FEBRUARY 11

EVENT: The George Washington University Department of Music presents Neil Gladd in concert on the mandolin.

The program will include J.S. Bach's Sonata No. 1 in G Minor, BWV 1001, Sigr. Leoni of Naples's "L'avez vous vo mon bien aime," Aubry Stauffer's "Finale" from the Concerto in D, Paul Hindemith's Sonata, Op. 31, No. 2, Neil Gladd's Sonata No. 2 for Solo Mandolin and Pamela J. Marshall's "Mandolin Night."

WHEN: Friday, February 11, 1994
7:00 p.m.

WHERE: The George Washington University
Academic Center B-120
801 22nd Street, NW, Washington, DC
(Two blocks from Foggy Bottom metro)

COST: Free and open to the public

Background:

NEIL GLADD, a Capitol Hill resident, received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Musicology from Virginia Polytechnic Institute in 1978, but is entirely self-taught on the mandolin. One of only four or five professional mandolinists in the U.S., Gladd is known not only as a performer and composer, but as an authority on mandolin history. He has appeared as a mandolin soloist at the Kennedy Center, Carnegie Recital Hall, the Smithsonian Institution and at mandolin festivals in Germany, Sweden, Belgium and Japan, as well as giving recitals in Paris and London. During the past two seasons, he appeared as an onstage musician in the Shakespeare Theater's productions of "The Comedy of Errors" and "Much Ado About Nothing" (with Kelly McGillis and David Selby). In 1992, Gladd made his national television debut on the PBS American Experience Series ("If You Knew Sousa").

ROOM 207
Office of Special Collections
Gelman Library, 00000

Dave Anderson
CAMPUS MAIL
Room 207

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 3, 1994

MEDIA CONTACT: Shawn Tate
(202) 994-6467
PUBLIC CONTACT: Jim Levy
(202) 994-6246

GW'S DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC PRESENTS "SPRING '94 JAZZ SERIES"
RUNNING FEBRUARY THROUGH APRIL

EVENT: The George Washington University Department of Music presents a "Spring '94 Jazz Series" hosted by the GW Faculty Jazz Quartet: John Albertson, guitar; Jim Levy, keyboards; Ricky Loza, percussion; and David Marsh, bass. Musicians are urged to bring their instruments and sit in.

February's schedule includes:

- February 11: A jam session with KING JAMES AND THE SERFS OF SWING
- February 18: A jam session featuring the music of Charlie Christian
- February 25: Music of Miles Davis featuring MIKE DI RENZO

WHEN: Fridays at noon

WHERE: The George Washington University
Academic Center (corner of 22nd and Eye Streets, NW)
Room B-120
801 22nd Street, NW, Washington, DC
(Two blocks from Foggy Bottom metro)

COST: All sessions are free and open to the public.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 3, 1994

MEDIA CONTACT: Shawn Tate
(202) 994-6467

JAZZ VOCALIST DEBBIE MACFARLAN TO PERFORM PROGRAM,
"3 DAY LOVE AFFAIR"
FOR GW'S LISNER AT NOON SERIES FEBRUARY 9

EVENT: Free lunchtime concert at The George Washington University's Lisner Auditorium. Jazz vocalist Debbie Macfarlan will perform music from her recording "3 Day Love Affair."

Macfarlan once planned to be a lawyer, but instead opted for what she really wanted to do -- sing. A longtime area favorite, she recorded the jazz album "3 Day Love Affair" in 1991. She included songs such as Gershwin's "Summertime," Porter's "It's All Right With Me, and "Waller's "Ain't Misbehavin'," as well as her original title track.

The Maryland Musician says of Macfarlan, "She has an obvious grasp of the jazz idiom (that) goes much deeper than just embracing the genre."

WHEN: Wednesday, February 9, 1994 at 12:15 p.m.

WHERE: The George Washington University
Lisner Auditorium
21st and H Streets NW
Washington, D.C.

COST: Free and open to the public

Lisner at Noon concerts are held in Lisner Auditorium, at the corner of 21st and H Streets on The George Washington University campus (Foggy Bottom-GW Metro stop on the Blue and Orange Lines). Future shows at Lisner's noon series include violinist Sania Derevianko with the Peabody Horn Trio on February 23, pianist Peter Uhler on March 2 and contemporary folk/rock vocalists "Jane & Julia" on March 23. All performances are free and open to the public.

For further information about the Lisner at Noon series, contact Jenn Huntzinger at (202) 994-5524.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 3, 1994

MEDIA CONTACT: Shawn Tate
(202) 994-6467
PUBLIC CONTACT: Jim Levy
(202) 994-6246

GW'S DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC PRESENTS "SPRING '94 JAZZ SERIES"
RUNNING FEBRUARY THROUGH APRIL

EVENT: The George Washington University Department of Music presents a "Spring '94 Jazz Series" hosted by the GW Faculty Jazz Quartet: John Albertson, guitar; Jim Levy, keyboards; Ricky Loza, percussion; and David Marsh, bass. Musicians are urged to bring their instruments and sit in.

March's schedule includes:

- March 4: Guest artist JOHNE FARGES, jazz tap dancer
- March 11: A jam session exploring the Afro-Cuban bebop connection
- March 25: A GW STUDENT JAZZ COMBO jam session

WHEN: Fridays at noon

WHERE: The George Washington University
Academic Center (corner of 22nd and Eye Streets, NW)
Room B-120
801 22nd Street, NW, Washington, DC
(Two blocks from Foggy Bottom metro)

COST: All sessions are free and open to the public.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Feb. 4, 1994

MEDIA CONTACT: NORA KELLEY

(202) 994-3087

-- MEDIA ADVISORY --

PULITZER PRIZE-WINNING JOURNALIST GEORGE WILL
TO SPEAK AT THE GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY NATIONAL LAW CENTER

Feb. 17 Lecture Marks the Fourteenth Annual Manuel F. Cohen
Memorial Lecture

WHAT: George Will to Speak at GW National Law Center's Fourteenth Annual Manuel F. Cohen Memorial Lecture

WHERE: The National Law Center
Lerner Hall, Room LL101
2000 H Street, NW

WHEN: Thursday, February 17th
4:15 p.m.

BACKGROUND:

George F. Will, whose political commentary won him a Pulitzer Prize in 1977, has been syndicated by The Washington Post since 1974. Today his column appears twice weekly in about 500 newspapers in the United States and in Europe.

In addition to being a syndicated columnist, Will is a television news analyst for the Capital Cities/ABC News Television Network Group. From 1977 - 1984 he was a regular panelist on "Agronsky & Company," and, in 1981, became a founding member of the panel of ABC's "This Week with David Brinkley."

Will was born in Champaign, Il. He earned a B.A. from Trinity College in Hartford, CT; a B.A. in Politics, Philosophy and Economics at Oxford University, England; and an M.A. and Ph.D in Politics at Princeton University.

The Manuel F. Cohen Memorial Lectureship was established at the National Law Center in 1979. It serves as a living memorial to Manny Cohen, a leader in the field of securities law, a dedicated public servant, former chairman of the SEC, legal scholar and a teacher at the law school for nearly two decades.

Members of the media interested in covering the event should contact Nora Kelley at (202) 994-3087. We regret to say that, due to space constraints, video cameras will not be allowed in the lecture hall.

NEWS

OFFICE OF UNIVERSITY RELATIONS • WASHINGTON, D.C. 20052 • (202)994-6460

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 4, 1994

CONTACT: Shawn Tate
(202) 994-6467

-- MEDIA ADVISORY --

GW HEALTH CARE ECONOMIST AVAILABLE FOR ANALYSIS/COMMENTARY

Warren Greenberg, Ph.D., is professor of health economics at The George Washington University and professor of health care sciences at GW's School of Medicine. Since 1991, he has been senior fellow at the University's Center for Health Policy Research and, since 1986, faculty associate in public policy for the Columbian College and Graduate School of Arts and Sciences.

He is an expert on health insurance; health care and antitrust and competition, regulation and rationing in health care. He has also published reviews of President Clinton's health care proposals.

Dr. Greenberg is available for interviews and can be contacted at his office (202) 994-8187, his home (301) 942-2518 or through the Office of University Relations (202) 994-6460.

BACKGROUND:

WARREN GREENBERG earned his B.A. in economics from Temple University, his M.A. from the University of Pennsylvania and his Ph.D. from Bryn Mawr College. He was visiting professor of health economics at Ben-Gurion University, Israel, in 1989 and visiting lecturer in the department of health policy and management at Erasmus University, Netherlands, in the summer of 1993. In addition, he was visiting associate professor of managerial economics at the University of Maryland from 1980 to 1982 and senior research economist for the Federal Trade Commission from 1971-1979.

- MORE -

Greenberg testified before congressional committees on subjects such as funding for the National Heart, Lung, and Blood Institute (February 2, 1994, before the House Appropriations Committee) and the importance of prevention as it relates to the basic benefits package in President Clinton's proposal (November 15, 1993, before the House Ways and Means Committee).

Greenberg has written extensively on health care issues. Recent books include "Response to AIDS: Case Studies of HMO's Insurers and Employers" (1989) and "Competition, Regulation and Rationing in Health Care" (1991). His articles have appeared in publications such as The New England Journal of Medicine, The New York Times, The Washington Post, Journal of Health Politics, Policy and Law, Health Services Research, Behavioral Science, Journal of Community Health, Social Science and Medicine and Business and Health.

A frequent speaker at professional meetings, Greenberg has presented on health care to organizations such as the American Economic Association, American Association for the Advancement of Science, National Health Lawyers Association, the Women's Bar Association and American Public Health Association; he has also addressed conferences such as the International Health Economics and Management Conference and the National Managed Care Congress.

Greenberg has been interviewed in regard to health care issues for segments on National Public Radio, Cable News Network, PBS and NBC Nightly News, among others.

NEWS

OFFICE OF UNIVERSITY RELATIONS • WASHINGTON, D.C. 20052 • (202)994-6460

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 7, 1994

Contact: Sam Silverstein
(202) 994-6460

* MEDIA ADVISORY ****

GW'S JOHN LOGSDON AVAILABLE FOR COMMENT ON FIRST SPACE SHUTTLE MISSION FEATURING A RUSSIAN COSMONAUT

When NASA sends the space shuttle Discovery aloft Thursday morning, it will carry the first Russian ever to travel into space aboard an American craft, veteran cosmonaut Sergei K. Krikalev. The mission will mark the start of a new era of cooperation between the United States and Russia on space exploration, and the future may even include the merger of the two nations' space programs one day.

John Logsdon, director of The George Washington University's Space Policy Institute, has followed this story closely, and is available for comment on the significance of the shuttle mission. He may be reached at (202) 994-7292 (W), or (301) 776-8158 (H), or you may contact Sam Silverstein of the GW Office of Public Affairs at (202) 994-6460.

NEWS

OFFICE OF UNIVERSITY RELATIONS • WASHINGTON, D.C. 20052 • (202)994-6460

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 7, 1994

Contact: Sam Silverstein
(202) 994-6460

PULITZER PRIZE-WINNING HISTORIAN GARRY WILLS
TO DELIVER CUNLIFFE MEMORIAL LECTURE FEB. 9 AT GW

Lecture on "George Washington: The Man Behind the Image," to Mark 173rd Anniversary of GW's Charter

- EVENT: Pulitzer Prize-winning historian Garry Wills, Ph.D. delivers the The Marcus Cunliffe Memorial Lecture, in honor of the late GW University Professor who was one of the world's foremost experts on George Washington. Dr. Wills will speak on "George Washington: The Man Behind the Image."
- WHEN: Wednesday, February 9, 1994
5 p.m.
- WHERE: The George Washington University
Dorothy Betts Marvin Theatre
Marvin Center
800 21st Street, NW
Washington, D.C.
(Foggy Bottom/GW Metro, Blue and Orange lines.)
- COST: Free and open to the public. Please call (202) 994-5440 for reservations.

Background:

Marcus Cunliffe, born in England in 1922, was educated at Oxford and Yale universities, and served as a University Professor at The George Washington University from 1980 until he died in 1990. He was one of the world's leading experts on George Washington, and taught at Harvard University, the City University of New York, the University of Michigan and the University of California, Berkeley before arriving at GW. Dr. Cunliffe's publications include George Washington: Man and Monument and The Presidency.

Garry Wills, Ph.D., is Adjunct Professor History at Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill. He has written extensively on American history and has taught at several universities, including Xavier and Yale universities, and acknowledges Dr. Cunliffe's work as significantly influencing his own views on George Washington. His book Lincoln at Gettysburg won the Pulitzer Prize for nonfiction as well as several other major awards.

-more-

The lecture is presented in cooperation with the President General and the Curator General of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution and the Regent and Vice Regents of the Mount Vernon Ladies Association. It will mark the 173rd anniversary of The George Washington University's Charter.

Located four blocks from the White House, GW was created by an Act of Congress in 1821. Today, GW is the largest institution of higher education in the nation's capital. The University offers comprehensive programs of undergraduate and graduate liberal arts study as well as degree programs in medicine, law, engineering, education, business/public administration and international affairs. Each year GW enrolls a diverse population of 19,000 undergraduate, graduate and professional students from all 50 states, the District of Columbia and 120 countries.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 8, 1994

MEDIA CONTACT: Karen Sibert
202/994-6460
PUBLIC CONTACT: Chris Hasselman
202/994-7238

SPORT EVENT MANAGERS CONVENE AT GW MAY 2 & 3 FOR FIRST WORLD CONGRESS ON RISK MANAGEMENT

EVENT: The George Washington University Forum for Sport and Event Management and Marketing presents the First World Congress on Safety & Security at Sport Events, "TEAM 2000 - Setting the Standard," a one-and-a-half day seminar for sport event managers.

WHEN: Monday, May 2, 1994 - Tuesday, May 3, 1994
8:00 a.m. - 7:00 p.m. 9:00 a.m. - 1:45 p.m.

WHERE: The George Washington University Marvin Center
800 21st Street, NW, Washington, D.C.
(GW/Foggy Bottom Metro - Orange and Blue lines)

COST: $425.00

Background:

The Forum for Sport and Special Event Management and Marketing is a unit of the GW School of Education and Human Development's International Institute for Tourism Studies. Established in September 1993 to develop new curricula in the field of sport and special event management and marketing, the Forum offers professional services such as symposia, research, educational products and reference/referral networks. One of its primary objectives is to provide scholarships to minorities, women and other outstanding students, as well as to endow a chair for distinguished faculty. The Forum's activities are directed by Stedman Graham, former professional athlete, founder of Athletes Against Drugs, and president of S. Graham & Associates of Chicago, Illinois, a management, marketing and consulting firm specializing in sports and entertainment.

Dave Anderson
CAMPUS MAIL
Room 207
Office of Special Collections
Gelman Library, 00000

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 9, 1994

MEDIA CONTACT: Shawn Tate
(202) 994-6467
PUBLIC CONTACT: Beth Castle
(202) 338-7784

WOMEN'S HEALTH CARE DAY TO BE HELD AT GW MARCH 7

Health Care Information, Demonstrations and Activities
Available to the Public, Free of Charge

EVENT: The George Washington University's Women's Issues Now sponsors the second annual "Women's Health Care Day."

Over 30 organizations from the D.C. metropolitan area will provide information, activities and demonstrations concerning many aspects of women's health such as AIDS, birth control, nutrition, cancer, eating disorders, violence against women, sleep disorders, wellness, sexually transmitted disease, child and day care, menopause, osteoporosis and health care for immigrants.

There will be free demonstrations of self-defense, yoga and stress-relieving activities, along with speakers and singers throughout the day.

Participants include organizations such as the Whitman-Walker Clinic, Columbia Hospital for Women, Planned Parenthood, the House of Ruth and the GW Student Health Service.

Information will be available in Spanish -- Informacion en español.

WHEN: Monday, March 7, 1994
11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

WHERE: The George Washington University Marvin Center
Third Floor Ballroom
800 21st Street, NW, Washington, DC
(Two blocks from Foggy Bottom metro)

COST: Free and open to the public.

NEWS

OFFICE OF UNIVERSITY RELATIONS • WASHINGTON, D.C. 20052 • (202)994-6460

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 14, 1994

MEDIA CONTACT: Karen Sibert
202/994-6460
PUBLIC CONTACT: George Linial
312/943-0544

COMMUNITARIAN FOUNDER, AMITAI ETZIONI, ADDRESSES CONFERENCE OF HEALTH CARE EXECUTIVES IN CHICAGO FEB. 22

EVENT: GW University Professor, Amitai Etzioni, Ph.D., will deliver the Arthur C. Bachmeyer Memorial address on "Communitarian Perspectives on the Health Care Crisis" at the annual meeting of the American College of Health Care Executives.

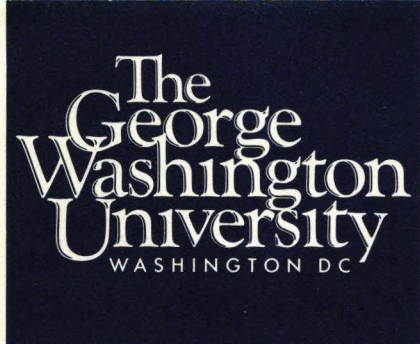

WHEN: Tuesday, February 22, 1994
11:45 a.m.

WHERE: Hyatt Regency Hotel
Chicago, Illinois

Background:

Amitai Etzioni is a distinguished professor of sociology at The George Washington University. His achievements in the social sciences include 20 years as a professor of sociology at Columbia University, senior advisor in the Carter administration, guest scholar at the Brookings Institution and the Thomas Henry Carroll Ford Foundation Professor at the Harvard Business School.

He founded the Communitarian Network, a national, nonprofit membership organization dedicated to shoring up the moral, social and political environment, in 1991. The network mobilizes coalitions to develop innovative solutions to public problems. The Communitarian perspective is articulated in the quarterly journal, "The Responsive Community: Rights and Responsibilities;" the Communitarian Position Paper Series; a newsletter, "The Communitarian Reporter;" and in Dr. Etzioni's latest book, "The Spirit of Community: Rights, Responsibilities and the Communitarian Agenda."

NEWS

OFFICE OF UNIVERSITY RELATIONS • WASHINGTON, D.C. 20052 • (202)994-6460

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 14, 1994

CONTACT: Karen Sibert
202/994-6460

GOLDBLATT, HALAL, SIMION AND WELLS FEATURED AT GW FACULTY AUTHORS RECEPTION, FEB. 17

EVENT: Faculty Authors Signing Reception honoring:

Joe Jeff Goldblatt, Forum for Sport and Event
Management and Marketing
William E. Halal, Management Science Department
Rodica Simion, Mathematics Department
William G. Wells Jr., Management Science Department

WHEN: Thursday, February 17, 1994
10 a.m. - 11 a.m.

WHERE: The George Washington University
Gelman Library, Department of Special Collections
2130 H Street, NW, Room 207
Washington, D.C.

Background:

Faculty Authors Signing Receptions are held in October, December, February, April and June to provide an opportunity for Gelman Library subject specialists to honor faculty authors whose books have been received recently by the Special Collections Department and to ensure signed copies of the books for the collections. These works will be included in a collection of books by The George Washington University faculty members.

NEWS

OFFICE OF UNIVERSITY RELATIONS • WASHINGTON, D.C. 20052 • (202)994-6460

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 15, 1994

CONTACT: Karen Sibert
202/994-6460

-- MEDIA ADVISORY --

CELEBRATED DIPLOMAT, ABBA EBAN, AVAILABLE TO COMMENT ON PROGRESS OF MIDDLE EAST PEACE ACCORD

GW Professor Back From Recent Trip to Assess Israeli/PLO Talks

Abba Eban, Visiting Professor of International Affairs at The George Washington University, has recently returned from Israel where he spent several weeks studying the current peace negotiations. An expert on diplomacy in the Middle East, Eban has been a participating witness to the historical events unfolding in this region over the 40 past years. His discerning insights on the roles of Israelis and Palestinians in this latest peace effort are well grounded in scholarship and practical experience. Ambassador Eban may be reached for commentary and analysis of issues relating to the Middle East peace accord by contacting Karen Sibert, GW Office of University Relations, 202/994-6460.

Background:

Abba Eban was educated at Cambridge University where he was engaged in teaching and research at the start of World War II. He joined the British military in 1940 and served in Egypt and Palestine. In 1948, he was selected as Israel's first ambassador to the United Nations. There, he led the Israeli delegation that successfully gained admission to the U.N. Concurrent with his ambassadorial post in the U.N., he served as Israel's ambassador to the United States from 1950 to 1959. He was a member of the Knesset for 18 years and served as minister of education and culture, deputy prime minister, and foreign minister (during the Six-Day War and the Yom Kippur War) in the period from 1960 to 1974. He chaired the Knesset Committee on Defense and Foreign Affairs for four years (1984-1988).

NEWS

OFFICE OF UNIVERSITY RELATIONS • WASHINGTON, D.C. 20052 • (202)994-6460

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 15, 1994

MEDIA CONTACT: Shawn Tate
(202) 994-6467
PUBLIC CONTACT: Department of Music
(202) 994-6245

GW'S UNIVERSITY SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA PRESENTS A WINTER CONCERT,
MARCH 6

EVENT: The George Washington University Department of Music presents a performance by the University Symphony Orchestra. The symphony will be directed by William Wright with soloists Elizabeth Wohlsen, violin and Michael Pietsch, trumpet.

The program will include Khatchaturian's "Masquerade Suite;" Mozart's Violin Concerto No. 4 with violin soloist Elizabeth Wohlsen; and Haydn's Trumpet Concerto with trumpet soloist Michael Pietsch.

WHEN: Sunday, March 6, 1994
7:30 p.m.

WHERE: The George Washington University
Dorothy Betts Marvin Theatre
800 21st Street, NW, Washington, DC
(Two blocks from Foggy Bottom metro)

COST: Free and open to the public.

NEWS

OFFICE OF UNIVERSITY RELATIONS • WASHINGTON, D.C. 20052 • (202)994-6460

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 17, 1994

MEDIA CONTACT: Shawn Tate
(202) 994-6467
PUBLIC CONTACT: Janet Blyberg
(202) 994-8401

GW'S COLONNADE GALLERY PRESENTS "ART BY DESIGN"
MARCH 3 - MARCH 24

EVENT: The George Washington University Colonnade Gallery is pleased to present "Art By Design."

Lisa Sheirer, professor of design at Frostburg State and curator of the exhibit, says, "'Art By Design' is not an art show, and not a design show, but it is most assuredly about both art and design. It is a show of art created by and for design."

This exhibit is about artists and the work they produce for graphic design. It looks at the steps designers must go through to produce commercial art, from concept to final production. The show focuses on the work of professional artists as well as some GW student work.

"Art By Design" is co-sponsored by the Art Department and the Marvin Center Governing Board.

For additional exhibit information, contact Janet C. Blyberg, Colonnade Gallery coordinator, at (202) 994-8401.

WHEN: March 3 - 24, 1993
Seven days a week, 8 a.m. to midnight
Opening Reception: Thursday, March 3, 5 to 7 p.m.

WHERE: The George Washington University Colonnade Gallery
Marvin Center, third floor
800 21st Street, NW, Washington, D.C.
(Two blocks from Foggy Bottom/GW Metro)

COST: Free and open to the public

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 18, 1994

CONTACT: Karen Sibert
202/994-6460

GW PROFESSOR AMITAI ETZIONI ADDRESSES PHILADELPHIA
BUSINESS LEADERS ON "COMMUNITARIAN IDEALS" MARCH 2

EVENT: Sunday Breakfast Club Reception and Dinner

WHEN: Wednesday, March 2, 1994
7:15 p.m.

WHERE: Union League of Philadelphia
140 S. Broad Street
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
Contact: Robert M. Landis, 215/994-2765

Background:

Amitai Etzioni, Ph.D., is a distinguished professor of sociology at The George Washington University. His achievements in the social sciences include 20 years as a professor of sociology at Columbia University, senior adviser in the Carter administration, guest scholar at the Brookings Institution and the Thomas Henry Carroll Ford Foundation Professor at the Harvard Business School.

He is the founder of the Communitarian Network, a national, nonprofit membership organization dedicated to shoring up the moral, social and political environment. The network mobilizes coalitions to develop innovative solutions to public problems. The Communitarian perspective is articulated in the quarterly journal, "The Responsive Community: Rights and Responsibilities;" the Communitarian Position Paper Series; a newsletter, "The Communitarian Reporter;" and in Dr. Etzioni's latest book, "The Spirit of Community: Rights, Responsibilities and the Communitarian Agenda."

The Sunday Breakfast Club was established in Philadelphia in 1932 as a permanent committee on unemployment within the city's

AMITAI ETZIONI

PAGE TWO

Chamber of Commerce. Now celebrating its 60th anniversary, the Sunday Breakfast Club has evolved into an elected society of principal executives of businesses, not-for-profit and cultural organizations in Philadelphia.

- 30 -

Dave Anderson
CAMPUS MATL

NEWS

OFFICE OF UNIVERSITY RELATIONS • WASHINGTON, D.C. 20052 • (202)994-6460

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 22, 1994

MEDIA CONTACT: Shawn Tate
(202) 994-6467
PUBLIC CONTACT: Judy Annis
(202) 994-6178

GW PRESENTS WORLD PREMIERE OF NEW PLAY "CONDOR QATAY"
MARCH 31 - APRIL 3

GW Professors, Nathan Garner and Catherine Allen, Write and Direct Play About Native American People of Southern Peru

EVENT: The George Washington University Department of Theatre and Dance present "CONDOR QATAY," written and directed by theatre professor Nathan Garner and anthropology professor Catherine Allen.

Focusing on the native-American people of Southern Peru, the play centers around a single Quechua-speaking family, struggling with the vicissitudes of life in the Andean highlands. This story is paralleled by the telling of the fable upon which it is based: a condor turns himself into a descendant of the Spanish conquerors and lures a young woman off to his world, only to be pursued by the young woman's father.

Based on ethnographic documentation of contemporary life in Southern Peru, the play brings to life the hopes and fears, the beliefs, the trials, the pleasures and the rich traditions of these contemporary descendants of the Incas.

WHEN: Thursday - Saturday, March 31 - April 2 at 8 p.m.
Sunday, April 3 at 2 p.m.

WHERE: The George Washington University
Dorothy Betts Marvin Theatre
800 21st Street, NW, Washington, D.C.

COST: $8 General
$5 Students/Senior citizens
For ticket information, call (202) 994-6178

- MORE -

BACKGROUND:

NATHAN GARNER has been a member of The George Washington University theatre faculty for 25 years, teaching acting, directing and other related courses. He has directed dozens of productions in the Washington area and at GW. Some 15 years ago, he began working with anthropologist Colin Turnbull to explore ways in which their two disciplines could complement each other. One result of that work was the development of a course called "Anthropology in Performance," in which students from various disciplines come together to study other peoples through improvisation and experimentation. In recent years, he has team taught the course with Catherine Allen. "CONDOR QATAY" is the product of their work together.

CATHERINE J. ALLEN is professor of anthropology at The George Washington University. She specializes in expressive culture of the Andes where she has done extensive fieldwork. She is the author of the book, "The Hold Life Has: Coca and Cultural Identity in an Andean Community" (Smithsonian Press, 1988). Since 1983, she has collaborated with Nathan Garner teaching "Anthropology in Performance." In addition, she teaches courses on art and culture, symbolic anthropology, cultures of South America, the anthropology of religion and anthropology in literature.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Feb. 22, 1994

MEDIA CONTACT: NORA KELLEY
(202) 994-3087

GW HOSTS MOOT COURT COMPETITION ON PRESIDENTIAL RESTRICTION OF MEDIA COVERAGE IN AREAS OF MILITARY OPERATION

Feb. 27 Event to Feature Judges from the U.S. Court of Appeals

WHAT: FINAL ROUND. The 3rd Annual George Washington University National Law Center National Security Law Moot Court Competition, "The Metropolis Daily Planet v. Clint Williams, President of the United States," in the Supreme Court of the United States.

Presiding Judges: The Honorable David B. Sentelle, U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia; The Honorable Edward R. Becker, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit; Boisfeuillet Jones, Jr., Esq., General Counsel, Washington Post Co.

WHERE: The George Washington University National Law Center
Moot Court Room
Lerner Hall
2000 H Street, NW
Washington D.C.

WHEN: Sunday, February 27
10:00 a.m.

Members of the media interested in attending should contact Nora Kelley at (202)994-3087.

BACKGROUND:

Hosted by The George Washington University National Law Center Moot Court Board, this high-profile competition allows participants to argue national security law issues before a distinguished panel of judges.

The George Washington University law students developed the competition as a forum to research and argue national security law issues. This year's topic deals with the constitutionality of presidential restrictions on media coverage in areas of military operation.

-- more --

Participating law schools are: American University, Georgetown University, Howard University, New York University, Quinnipiac College, South Texas University, Touro College, the University of North Carolina and the University of Southern California.

The weekend-long competition includes a welcoming cocktail party, a tour of Washington, D.C., and an awards banquet with prize money and trophies for the winning team, the best written brief and the best orator.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

February 22, 1994

CONTACT: Karen Sibert

202/994-6460

GW'S VIRGINIA CAMPUS PRESENTS SEMINAR ON TECHNOLOGY AND BUSINESS MARCH 3

EVENT: Conference on "Technology and Business Competitiveness: New Directions, Innovation and Change" presented by The George Washington University Virginia Campus in cooperation with the School of Engineering & Applied Science and School of Business & Public Management.

Presenters include:

Dr. William H. Money, associate professor in the Executive Master of Science in Information Systems program, GW School of Business & Public Management; "Using Groupware and Collaborative Computing to Plan For Business Competitiveness"

Dr. Jonathan Deason, director, Office of Environmental Policy and Compliance, U.S. Department of Interior; "Environmental Technology Competitiveness"

John Jerke, director of Technology Assistance and Transfer for Northern Virginia, Center for Innovative Technology; "Meeting the Defense Transition Challenge: Virginia's Center for Innovative Technology"

Dr. James Hahn, assistant professor of engineering and applied science, The George Washington University; "The World of Virtual Reality: Opening New Computer Dimensions"

Dr. Nabih Bedewi, associate professor of engineering and applied science, The George Washington University, and director of the National Crash Analysis Center; "Intelligent Highways and Vehicles of the Future"

- more -

Dr. Stephen Fuller, GW professor of urban development;
"Update on Northern Virginia Economic Development Trends"

Dr. Hermann Helgert, professor of engineering and applied science, The George Washington University;
"Telecommunications: Where the Technology is Leading Us"

This conference is being sponsored by the Center for Innovative Technology, Dulles Greenway (TRIP II),
Dulles Days Inn, Decatur Press, U.S. Geological Survey,
The Printhouse Express, National Crash Analysis Center,
GW Executive MBA Program, GW Executive MIS Program and GW Accelerated MS in Telecommunications and Computers.

WHEN: Thursday, March 3, 1994
3:00 - 8:00 p.m.

WHERE: The George Washington University
Virginia Campus
20101 Academic Way
Ashburn, VA

COST: Free and open to the public. Reservations are being accepted at 703/729-8300.

Background:

Located just minutes from Dulles International Airport, the GW Virginia Campus is a state-of-the-art graduate and research complex. It offers programs from the University's professional schools and continuing education division which are of particular value to the managerial and technical personnel of high technology firms in the area.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 18, 1994

CONTACT: Karen Sibert
202/994-6460

-- MEDIA ADVISORY --

GW EXPERTS ON INTERNATIONAL TRADE AVAILABLE TO COMMENT ON FAILED TRADE TALKS WITH JAPAN

With the failure of U.S.-Japan trade talks last week, U.S. sanctions against Japanese products seem imminent. How likely is a trade war between the two economic super powers? What would be the effect upon the U.S. economy? Where is the middle ground upon which an agreement could be based? These and other questions can be answered by a number of GW faculty experts in international trade and economics. They are listed below and may be contacted directly or by calling Karen Sibert in the GW Office of University Relations:

Rodney S. Eldridge, Ph.D., professor of international business, an expert on international trade and trade policy.
W: 202/994-6880

Phillip D. Grub, D.B.A., Aryamehr Professor of Multinational Management, an expert on global business, particularly in Japan, China, South Korea, Vietnam and Indonesia, and U.S.-Japan trade issues.
W: 202/994-7373 H: 703/920-6533

G.P. Lauter, Ph.D., professor of business administration, an expert on international business; East-West trade; U.S.-Japan trade; and Japanese economy.
W: 202/994-7374 H: 202/661-3379

Michael Moore, Ph.D., assistant professor of economics and international affairs, an expert on international trade and GATT.
W: 202/994-6157

Henry R. Nau, Ph.D., professor of political science and international affairs; associate dean, Elliott School of International Affairs; an expert on U.S. foreign economic and trade policy; trade summits; debt; U.S.-Japan economic issues; and U.S.-Europe relations, including East-West trade.
May be reached after 3 p.m. (EST): 407/391-6338

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 22, 1994

Contact: Mike Freedman
or Sam Silverstein
(202) 994-6460

GW TO HOST WILLIAM F. BUCKLEY "FIRING LINE" DEBATE ON WELFARE REFORM MARCH 15

D.C. Del. Eleanor Holmes Norton and N.Y. Rep. Charles Rangel to appear; Michael Kinsley to moderate

Washington, D.C. -- The William F. Buckley Jr. "Firing Line" television series returns to The George Washington University campus on Tuesday, March 15, 1994, when leading supporters and critics of welfare face-off in a two-hour debate. The program, "RESOLVED: Welfare Has Done More Harm Than Good," is scheduled for broadcast on public television stations nationwide March 21.

Mr. Buckley will captain the team supporting the resolution, which will also include Charles Murray of the American Enterprise Institute; Robert L. Woodson, president of the National Center for Neighborhood Enterprise; and New Jersey state legislator Wayne Bryant. The opposition will include D.C. Del. Eleanor Holmes Norton (D-D.C.); Rep. Charles Rangel (D-N.Y.); Robert Greenstein, founder and director of the Center on Budget and Policy Priorities; and Francis Fox Piven, author of "Reeducating the Poor." Michael Kinsley, of The New Republic magazine and CNN's "Crossfire," will moderate the debate.

Students, faculty, staff and the general public are invited to attend the taping in the Dorothy Betts Marvin Theatre (800 21st Street, NW -- Foggy Bottom/GW Metro on the Blue and Orange lines).

The program will begin at 12:30 p.m. and continue until approximately 2:30 p.m. Students, faculty, staff and the general public may call (202) 994-6463 to reserve seats. Leave name, phone number and the size of your party. Mr. Buckley requests that the audience be seated by 12:15 p.m.

"Firing Line" is produced and directed by Warren Steibel in cooperation with the South Carolina Educational Television Network. In the past year, GW has hosted several other "Firing Line" programs, including debates on women in military combat, health care reform and the economy.

NEWS

OFFICE OF UNIVERSITY RELATIONS • WASHINGTON, D.C. 20052 • (202)994-6460

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 25, 1994

MEDIA CONTACT: Shawn Tate
(202) 994-6467
PUBLIC CONTACT: Jim Levy
(202) 994-6246

GW'S DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC PRESENTS "SPRING '94 JAZZ SERIES"
RUNNING THROUGH APRIL

EVENT: The George Washington University Department of Music presents a "Spring '94 Jazz Series" hosted by the GW Faculty Jazz Quartet: John Albertson, guitar; Jim Levy, keyboards; Ricky Loza, percussion; and David Marsh, bass. Musicians are urged to bring their instruments and sit in.

April's schedule includes:

- April 1: Guest artist jazz vocalist RONNIE WELLS, recording artist for Jazz Karma
- April 8: A jam session featuring the music of Professor JOHN ALBERTSON
- April 15: A jam session featuring the music of Professor RICKY LOZA
- April 22: GW LATIN BAND featuring Brazilian vocalist LITA MARTINEZ

WHEN: Fridays at noon

WHERE: The George Washington University
Academic Center (corner of 22nd and Eye Streets, NW)
Room B-120
801 22nd Street, NW, Washington, DC
(Two blocks from Foggy Bottom metro)

COST: All sessions are free and open to the public.

Office of Special Collections
Gelman Library, 00000

Dave Anderson
CAMPUS MAIL

NEWS

OFFICE OF UNIVERSITY RELATIONS • WASHINGTON, D.C. 20052 • (202)994-6460

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 28, 1994

MEDIA CONTACT: Shawn Tate
(202) 994-6467
PUBLIC CONTACT: Department of Music
(202) 994-6245

GW'S DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC PRESENTS
UNIVERSITY SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA'S WINTER CONCERT MARCH 6

EVENT: The George Washington University Department of Music presents a "Winter Concert" by the University Symphony Orchestra: William Wright, director; Elizabeth Wohlsen, violin; and Michael Peitsch, trumpet.

The program will include Khatchaturian's "Masquerade Suite;" Mozart's Violin Concerto No. 4 with violin soloist Elizabeth Wohlsen; and Haydn's Trumpet Concerto with trumpet soloist Michael Pietsch.

WHEN: Sunday, March 6, 1994
7:30 p.m.

WHERE: The George Washington University
Dorothy Betts Marvin Theatre
800 21st Street, NW, Washington, DC
(Two blocks from Foggy Bottom Metro)

COST: Free and open to the public

Dave Anderson
CAMPUS MAIL
Room 207
Office of Special Collections
Gelman Library, 00000

NEWS

OFFICE OF UNIVERSITY RELATIONS • WASHINGTON, D.C. 20052 • (202)994-6460

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 28, 1994

MEDIA CONTACT: Shawn Tate
(202) 994-6467
PUBLIC CONTACT: Department of Music
(202) 994-6245

GW'S DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC PRESENTS STEINER SCHOLARSHIP BENEFIT CONCERT WITH PERFORMANCE BY GW FACULTY PIANO TRIO
MARCH 7

EVENT: The George Washington University Department of Music presents a performance by the GW Faculty Piano Trio: Mary Findley, violin; Lori Barnet, cello; and Marilyn Garst, piano. The trio will be assisted by Osman Kivrak on the viola.

The program will include Mozart's "Trio in C Major," K.548; Katherine Hoover's "Trio;" and Brahms' "Piano Quartet in G minor," Op.25.

WHEN: Monday, March 7, 1994
7:00 p.m.

WHERE: The George Washington University
Dorothy Betts Marvin Theatre
800 21st Street, NW, Washington, DC
(Two blocks from Foggy Bottom Metro)

COST: Free and open to the public

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 28, 1994

MEDIA CONTACT: Shawn Tate
(202) 994-6467

 MEDIA ADVISORY ***

GW PROFESSOR YONAH ALEXANDER TO CHAIR SEMINAR ON "POLITICAL, LEGAL AND MILITARY STRATEGIES IN COUNTER-PROLIFERATION" MARCH 10

EVENT: Yonah Alexander, director of terrorism studies at The George Washington University and Senior Fellow of the U.S. Global Strategy Council, will chair a seminar on "POLITICAL, LEGAL AND MILITARY STRATEGIES IN COUNTER-PROLIFERATION."

Panelists include: Dr. Stephen D. Bryen, former deputy undersecretary of defense for Trade Security Policy and former director of the Defense Technology Security Administration; Kenneth R. Timmerman, former professional staff member of the Foreign Affairs Subcommittee on Intelligence Security, U.S. House of Representatives; Tom Moore, staff member of the Armed Services Committee, U.S. House of Representatives; Dr. Peter Rodman, director, Middle East studies, Center for Strategic and International Studies; and Lucinda Low, attorney, Miller & Chevalier.

The seminar is co-sponsored by The George Washington University, the U.S. Global Strategy Council and the Jewish Institute for National Security Affairs.

WHEN: Thursday, March 10, 1994
4 p.m. to 6 p.m.

WHERE: The International Club of Washington
1800 K Street, NW, Level B-1
Washington, D.C.

COST: Free and open to the public. For more information and RSVP notification, please call (202) 994-5757.